

8TH ANNUAL

Canadian Business Leaders Breakfast

featuring Martin Connell, founder of ACE Bakery

Tuesday, November 17, 8 to 9:30am
Quality Hotel Parkway Convention Centre
327 Ontario Street, St. Catharines

Martin Connell is a successful entrepreneur, an innovative philanthropist both at the local level as well as internationally and a well-respected community leader. For 30 years he was Chairman and held various executive positions with Conwest Exploration Company Ltd., a natural resource exploration and development company that was acquired in 1996 by Alberta Energy Company Ltd., now EnCana Corporation.

He co-founded with his wife Linda Haynes, ACE Bakery Limited, a gourmet bakery providing artisan European style breads in Ontario and the Eastern United States. ACE was sold in 2008. He is past President of Calmeadow, a charitable organization he co-founded with wife Linda in 1983 to enable people worldwide to strengthen their small-scale enterprises through small loans and access to financial services.

Martin has participated in numerous local and national corporate and community initiatives, including former Chair of SkyDome, founding Chair of the Toronto Film Festival and current Director of Nealanders International. He is the current Chair of the Board of Directors of the Toronto Community Foundation.
